Thea Bowman Leadership Academy, Lew Wallace, & Wheeler in State Basketball Finals!

March Madness filled the air as Bowman Leadership Academy, Lew Wallace and Wheeler high school continued their quest to the Conesco Fieldhouse in search for the Triple Crown State Titles on Saturday, March 27, 2010, in their respective class. Although they played hard, Lew Wallace failed to complete the Triple Crown in a tough loss against Washington. Lew Wallace Hornets (19-5) lost 65-62 in overtime play of the Class 3A state championship. The team was led by Branden Dawson & LaTroy Taylod each with 22 points apiece.

While Lew Wallace suffered a tough overtime defeat, Bowman & Wheeler were able to celebrate as State Champions. Bowman Academy (24-1) triumphed over Barr-Reeve in the impressive Class 1A victory 74-52. Bowman Academy broke game records with 18 steals and tied the record of 30 field goals. The team forced 24 turnovers and had 10 block shots. Scoring leaders were DeJuan Marrero 17 points and 11 rebounds, Tyrae Robinson with 11 points.

Wheeler (27-1) became state champions as they defeated Park Tudor in a 47-38 win. They finished the season with a 23-game winning streak and the 1st state championship in the program's history. Team leader Petar Todorovic finished the game with 13 points, including two crucial 3-pointers to help the Bearcats bring another State Championship to Northwest Indiana.

Congratulations to Bowman Leadership Academy, Lew Wallace & Wheeler High Schools for all your hard work and dedication!
